UNIVERSITY OF SRI JAYEWARDENEPURA

The University of Sri Jayewardenepura (USJP) has a history of more than a century. In 1883, the Venerable Hikkaduwe Sri Sumangala Thero established the Vidyodaya Pirivena at Maligakanda. The Pirivena was given university status by the University Act No. 45 of 1958 and named Vidyodaya University of Ceylon. With this transformation, it was geographically shifted from Maligakanda to its present location at Gangodawila, Nugegoda. Venerable Welivitiye Soratha Maha Thero who was the Principal of the Vidyodaya Pirivena at the time was appointed as the first Vice-Chancellor of the Vidyodaya University, and the university itself was ceremonially opened on 16th February 1959. At the inception, the student population of the University was a mere 466. In 1978, the name was changed to the University of Sri Jayewardenepura with the establishment of Sri Jayewardenepura as the administrative capital of Sri Lanka.
