Before you apply

Consider personal goals and development needs

Applicants are expected to have clear ideas about how they will contribute to development in Sri Lanka on their return. Before beginning their applications, applicants should consider the links between their academic and professional goals and their country's development needs.

Read the Sri Lanka Country Profile

The Sri Lanka Country Profile is essential reading as it outlines the target groups for Australia Awards Scholarships (www.australiaawardssrilanka.org), priority fields of study, levels of study, key dates and eligibility criteria.

Research university courses

The Commonwealth Register of Institutions and Courses for Overseas Students (CRICOS) has information on all Australian universities with courses available to international students. The CRICOS website and individual university websites can clarify:

- if a course is available to international students
- details of the course content to compare course components
- English language requirements for selected courses
- any other course-specific entry requirements of the institution
- how closely a course fits a development theme.

Applicants should carefully check that they meet ALL entry requirements before nominating a course. In particular, applicants proposing to study development economics or related fields should check they have the requisite mathematics/statistics background.

Complete a language proficiency test

English language proficiency is a mandatory requirement.

Applications must include a certificate showing a satisfactory IELTS or TOEFL or PTE Academic score. These test scores are valid for two years, and must be valid as of course commencement (January 2017). If a satisfactory level of English proficiency is not achieved at the first attempt, make sure there is enough time to re-sit the examination prior to the closing date of the application period.

Information on IELTS/TOEFL/PTE testing is available at: www.ielts.org, www.ets.org/toefl and www.pearsonpte.com

How to apply

Gathering and certifying documents

A number of documents are required to complete an eligible application and it is important to collect them as early as possible. All documents must be certified. If the document is not in English, the translated copy must be certified.

Although scanned versions of documents are uploaded with applications, candidates invited for interview will need to produce original documents for verification.

Online applications

APPLY ONLINE AT: <https://oasispartners.dfat.gov.au>. We strongly advise applicants to apply online and to do so well before the closing date. The online application facility (OASIS) experiences peak usage in the days leading up to the closing date and applicants may experience delays over this period.

The selection process

Following eligibility checking, applications will be assessed and ranked by independent consultants and then short-listed by Australian Government representatives. Only short-listed candidates are contacted for interview.

The selection interview includes a panel interview and a written exercise using a computer. Applicants will be assessed against the following criteria:

- academic competence
- potential outcome, including contribution to development outcomes in Sri Lanka in the specified priority sectors
- professional and personal leadership attributes

Refer to the Scholarships Policy Handbook for details.
